

Belated Forgiveness Plea

Capo on 3rd fret

C D Em (2x)

As a pilgrim I did go

C D Em (2x)

To a land that I did know,

C D Em (2x)

To the shores of Iqaluit,

C D Em (2x)

To see the warming hit

D (2x)

The north

C (2x) D (4x)

it is vain, but all I can do

C D Em (2x)

And the ices they have gone,

C D Em (2x) D (2x) C (2x) D (4x)

The ices they have gone.

I saw the houses downed,

in the melting of the ground.

The wind it laughed wild and shrill,

My heart it tried to spill

Its crazy tears.

For all the things we didn't do

For the ices, they have gone,

The ices, they have gone.

I stand both young and old

But the winds of time blow cold.

This much you must believe:

It pains to see you grieve.

I pity you,

For the things that we didn't do

For the ices, they have gone,

The ices, they have gone.

As a pilgrim I did go

To a land that I did know,

To the shores of Iqaluit,

To see the warming hit

The North.

The warming running its course,

And the ices, they have gone,

The ices, they have gone.
